This research was supported by the Science Fund of the Republic of Serbia, PROMIS, Grant no. 6062708, SerbRightWing.

As indicated above, this edited volume has been made possible due to the financial backing of the Science Fund of the Republic of Serbia, since it has come into being as an additional result of the project entitled The Serbian Right-Wing Parties and Intellectuals in the Kingdom of Yugoslavia, 1934-1941 (acronym SerbRightWing), the principal investigator of which is Dragan Bakić. The initial impulse for the present volume came from the panel “The Legacy of Nikolaj Velimirović” organized by Vladimir Cvetković and Rastko Lompar at the 4th Annual Conference of the European Academy of Religion held at the University of Münster, Germany, from 30 August to 2 September 2021. The panel marked the 140th anniversary of Bishop Nikolaj’s birth, 65 years of his repose, and 30 years since the translation of his relics to Serbia. Indeed, the core of the present volume consists of the papers presented on that occasion, and the editors are grateful to the organizers of the conference in Münster for presenting an opportunity from which this publication sprang. Vladimir Cvetković and Rastko Lompar also requested a few chapters from authors who did not participate in the conference but were interested in Bishop Nikolaj and willing to contribute. Both of them being participants of the above-mentioned project, it was only natural to undertake the publication of the present volume as part of it.

The editors would also like to extend their gratitude to the Institute for Balkan Studies of the Serbian Academy of Sciences and Arts and the publishing house Sebastian Press of the Diocese of Western America of the Serbian Orthodox Church, and the persons in charge of publication within these organizations, Prof. Vojislav G. Pavlović and the Right Reverend Prof. Maxim Vasiljević respectively, for including this volume in their publication plan. For the unfailing administrative support provided in the Institute for Balkan Studies the editors thank our office assistant, Ms. Radmila Pejić. We are grateful to our colleagues from the Institute for Balkan Studies, Junior Research Assistants Anđelija Miladinović and Marija Milinković, for taking the time to compile the index for the entire volume. We are also most thankful to the reviewers, Academician Ljubodrag Dimić of the Serbian Academy of Sciences and Arts, and Professors of the University of Belgrade, Miloš Ković and Zlatko Matić. Last but not least, we want to thank all the contributors to this volume for sharing their original and valuable research. One of them, Srećko Petrović, was even so kind as to provide assistance in tracing the origin of a number of photographs included in the volume. The editors take sole responsibility for any shortcomings of the publication.
